These are the cornerstones of New York Law School’s historic Capital Campaign, Breaking New Ground. Again. On the following pages, you will find a host of naming opportunities to create your legacy with the Law School, and to provide for future generations of students, through a generous gift to the campaign. From the naming of our magnificent new building, to endowing a scholarship in your name or that of a loved one, there is an opportunity for each of us to break new ground by making a gift to the campaign. As you will see on the following pages, there are many ways to support the campaign at every gift level.

All gifts to the campaign described in this booklet will be recognized, and immortalized, within our beautiful new home.
