Top Job Search Sites

NYLS Symplicity (https://law-nyls-csm.symplicity.com/students/) - The Office of Career Planning posts job listings for graduate and student positions. All listings are placed on NYLS Symplicity, accessible to all alumni. If you have not already done so, you may sign-up for free access, by emailing your (1) name and (2) graduation year, with the subject line “Login Information for Symplicity,” to career@nyls.edu. An account will be created, and login information will be sent to you.

Association of Corporate Counsel (www.acc.org) – The Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) is the world’s largest organization serving the professional and business interests of attorneys who practice in the legal departments of corporations, associations and other private-sector organizations around the globe. The website contains some extremely valuable information, including a job posting board and ancillary materials helpful in a search for jobs with in-house legal departments.

All Legal Jobs (www.AllLegalJobs.com) - AllLegalJobs.com is a job search engine that finds job listings from company career pages, other job boards, newspapers and associations. This site has an advanced search function that allows you to narrow your search by location and specific words found in the job posting.

The Federal Government Honors and Internship Handbook (www.law.arizona.edu/career/honorshandbook.cfm)  Username: social; Password: justice - This Guide is the preeminent source for Federal Government opportunities, providing substantive information including program descriptions, requirements, and application procedures.

Idealist.org (www.idealist.org) – A clearinghouse for public interest job and volunteer opportunities. This site includes more than just legal jobs and provides advanced search options to wade through the large number of opportunities posted on the site.

Indeed.com (www.indeed.com) – This website is a comprehensive clearinghouse for jobs of all types, including legal jobs. This has been described as the most comprehensive posting board for legal jobs, collecting information from more sites than many other clearinghouse sites.

Lawjobs.com (www.lawjobs.com) – A job search site run by the American Lawyer, where you can search job postings, employer profiles, and upload your resume.

LinkedIn (www.linkedin.com) – When searching for a job on LinkedIn, use the “Advanced Search” tool to discover who in your network knows someone at that company. You may also type in the name of the company, as well as the name of your academic institutions to locate alumni who might be willing to assist you.

New York City Agencies (www.nyc.gov) – The home page provides a drop down list of all city agencies which you can peruse for various internship and full-time legal opportunities.
Office of Career Planning

PSJD (www.psjd.org) – PSJD, formerly PSLawNet, is the most comprehensive online resource for locating public interest jobs and internships. It is a free resource for law students and alumni to search among thousands of public interest job opportunities and employer profiles. PSJD also offers an online library of educational and career-building resources for those interested in pursuing a career in public service.