Walking the Walk: Implementing Comprehensive Transitional Justice Strategies
A Conversation with Dr. Agnès Hurwitz

Chaired by Prof. Ruti Teitel
Cosponsored by the NYLS Institute for Global Law, Justice, & Policy

Please join the Transitional Justice Network for a conversation with Dr. Agnès Hurwitz, Rule of Law Coordinator for the United Nations Development Programme’s Regional Bureau for Latin America and the Caribbean, about implementing comprehensive transitional justice strategies.

The goal of the Transitional Justice Network is to promote global discourse among students, scholars, and professionals on issues of transitional justice. A place for discussion, where students can learn about issue in the field, scholars can link with other scholars working in similar areas, and professionals can keep up to date with trending thoughts and philosophies. http://www-transitional-justice.org

Dr. Agnès Hurwitz is rule of law coordinator for UNDP's Regional Bureau for Latin America and the Caribbean where she coordinated a lessons learned report on transitional justice programmes in Latin America. Dr. Hurwitz has published over fifteen peer-reviewed articles and policy papers on refugee law and rule of law support, a monograph entitled The Collective Responsibility of States to Protect Refugees and an edited volume entitled Civil War and the Rule of Law: Security, Development, Human Rights.
