COSPLAY!
FASHION, FANTASY, AND THE LAW

Lawyers, law students, and comic fans, assemble! Join us for an exciting lunchtime discussion on the legal issues surrounding cosplay in the fashion and entertainment industries with Renee Frangione, Allison Rothman, and Danielle Weitzman ’15. Capes, costumes and, of course, casebooks are encouraged!

ABOUT OUR PANELISTS

Renee Frangione is a well-known cosplayer and member of the New York Avengers. She will be playing an exclusive role in Madame Tussauds New York’s new global Marvel 4D film experience, premiering in 2020.

Allison Rothman is a Founding Partner at Morrison Rothman LLP. She actively provides legal services in all aspects of video games and esports, as well as other areas such as digital entertainment, fashion, and consumer goods.

Danielle Weitzman ’15 is an Associate at Ladas & Parry LLP. Her practice concentrates on trademarks, copyrights, domain names, brand protection, and intellectual property transactions. She advises clients on all aspects of U.S. and international trademark law, including trademark clearance, prosecution, maintenance and enforcement.
