

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

PATENT LAW LUNCH:

Thursday, February 19

12:45 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.

New York Law School, Room W402

Lunch will be provided.

The Honorable
Faith S. Hochberg

Presented by the Institute for Information
Law and Policy

Join the IILP for our monthly Patent Law Lunch as we welcome Judge Faith Hochberg, U.S. District Judge for the District of New Jersey. Judge Hochberg is nationally recognized for her expertise in patent law, authoring such watershed opinions as Ibormeith IP v. Mercedes-Benz USA, Fuji Film Photo v. Jazz Photo, and In re Gabapentin Patent Litigation. Prior to her appointment to the bench, Judge Hochberg served as the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey from 1994 to 1999, and was selected to serve on the Attorney General's Advisory Committee. She has also served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the United States Department of Treasury, Senior Deputy Chief Counsel for the Office of Thrift Supervision, a Special Assistant to the Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and an Assistant United States Attorney. Prior to her public service, Judge Hochberg was a law firm partner in private practice. Judge Hochberg graduated summa cum laude from Tufts University with a degree in economics and magna cum laude from Harvard Law School, where she was an editor of the Harvard Law Review. She then served as a law clerk to the Honorable Spottswood Robinson III of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. She has also served as a Director of the Albert and Mary Lasker Foundation and the New Jersey Women's Forum.