Consolidated Return Issues for Buyers and Sellers in M&A Transactions
Michael L. Schier

This outline by Michael L. Schier addresses the major issues facing both buyers and sellers in M&A transactions. The outline discusses the issues for the parent in the target consolidated group selling the stock of the subsidiary in the target consolidated group; issues for the buyer buying stock of either the parent or subsidiary of the target consolidated group, and additional issues for the buyer buying the stock of the parent or subsidiary in the consolidated group.

Clarifying State and Local Tax Nexus
Stewart M. Weintraub and Jennifer L. Weidler

There has always been confusion regarding the necessary presence to establish a sufficient nexus for state and local tax purposes and the subject has become even more complicated with the advent of online commerce. This outline by Stewart M. Weintraub and Jennifer L. Weidler examines the subject through a review of U.S. Supreme Court nexus cases, state responses to Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, “economic presence” cases, the implications of Geoffry, Inc. v. Commissioner, and judicial interpretations of “solicitation” and independent contractor issues.

Post Mortem Tax Elections
Farhad Aghdami

Making the right post mortem tax elections can save an estate a considerable amount in taxes. But to reap those savings it is essential to know which elections are the right ones given the circumstances of the estate. In this outline, Farhad Aghdami covers the use of disclaimers, alternate valuations, installment payments under Code section 6166, redemption of stock to pay estate tax, the Code section 645 election to treat a revocable trust as part of the estate, the election to deduct estate administration expenses on Form 706 or Form 1041, the medical expense deduction, filing of the joint tax return, accrual of E/EE and H/HH bond interest, matching of income and expenses, distribution of excess income within 65 days, and how to make the best use of excess deductions.

CORRECTIONS

Our apologies to the New Jersey Chapter
In the November-December, 2013, edition of The Tax Executive, the headline on page 241 incorrectly referenced the New York Chapter. The summary, which continued to page 243, was written and submitted by the New Jersey Chapter.

Also in the November-December, 2013, Edition
On page 234, in the President’s Corner, some copy dropped out in the last paragraph of the first column. The theme for the 2013 Annual Conference was “Managing Global Tax Risk.”

Report of the Eighth Annual NAWL National Survey on Retention and Promotion of Women in Law Firms

There continues to be a disproportionately low number of women who advance into the highest ranks of large firms – despite a decades-old pipeline of women law school graduates. Since the mid-1980s, more than 40% of law school graduates have been women. By now, one would expect law firms to be promoting women and men at nearly the same rate. Such parity has not been achieved. At AmLaw 100 firms only about 20% of new equity partners were female. By Stephanie A. Scharf, Roberta Liebenberg and Christine Amalfe
