WEB SITES:

Gender and Law in American History: While at Georgetown University Law Center Wendy Williams and I taught a seminar in Gender and Law in American History. Over the years we received hundreds of papers. I constructed a web site providing summaries of many of the papers and instructions on how to obtain complete copies. That site is now maintained by the Williams Library at Georgetown and may be found at: <http://www.ll.georgetown.edu/special/ghl/>.

Javins v. First National Realty, Corp.: Part of the research undertaken in writing Javins (a.k.a. Saunders) v. First National Realty Corporation, 11 GEO. J. ON POVERTY L. & POLICY 191-247 (2004) involved gathering as many of the court documents in the case as possible. That was done with the help and cooperation of the Williams Library at Georgetown. After publishing the article, I put together a resource page providing access to the court papers and posted it on the Georgetown University Law Center web site. Now that I have left Georgetown, the page is maintained by the Williams Library there. It can be found at: <http://www.ll.georgetown.edu/special/javins/>.
