A Day in The Life Panel

The Legal Association for Women's Annual Symposium is a day-long event consisting of four different panels, and the Symposium aims to promote honest dialogue about the issues women face in the legal field. The Symposium provides New York Law School students a platform to connect with and learn from successful and influential female attorneys. This completely virtual event is open to people of all races, national origins, genders, and sexualities.

Students can reach out to lafw@nyls.edu for more information.
