

CAREERS IN PUBLIC CORRUPTION LAW

Co-sponsored by the Wilf Impact Center for Public
Interest Law's Criminal Justice
Institute, Criminal Law Society,
and the Office of Public Service and Pro Bono Initiatives

This panel will provide New York Law School (NYLS) students with an opportunity to learn about careers in public corruption law, including the work of prosecutors, inspectors general offices, ethics commissions, in-house agency counsel positions, and non-governmental organizations. Panelists will share their experiences in the public corruption law space and examine the requisite skills to pursue a career in good government.

Panelists:

Katerina Kurteva '14, Assistant District Attorney, Bronx District Attorney's Office; Former Inspector General Investigator, NYC Department of Investigations

Lyndsay Ruotolo '09, First Assistant Attorney General, New Jersey Attorney General's Office

Michael Siller, Chief Compliance Officer and Counsel, NYLS

Moderator:

Andrew Brunsten, Adjunct Professor, NYLS; Deputy Commissioner of Legal Affairs and General Counsel at New York City Department of Investigation

Wednesday, October 26, 2022

12:50 p.m.–1:50 p.m.

WA10

RSVP at www.nyls.edu/RSVPstudent

