New York Law School and Fordham Law School, in collaboration with public interest legal services employers, invite you to attend a virtual recruitment event highlighting Right to Counsel opportunities to represent tenants threatened with eviction. There is a significant and urgent need for more attorneys to do this critical work—these organizations are hiring for numerous entry-level positions.

Representatives from a number of legal services providers will be in attendance to talk about the work of an eviction prevention attorney and to answer questions. Interested law graduates, law students, and attorneys interested in transitioning to this practice area are encouraged to attend.
