

Bio Statements of various lengths (Last updated 9/19/25)

(50 words)

New York Law School Professor Emerita Nadine Strossen, past national President of the American Civil Liberties Union (1991-2008) and Senior Fellow with FIRE (Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), is an internationally acclaimed free speech scholar, advocate, and media commentator, whose most recent book is The War on Words (2025).

(68 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen also serves on the Advisory Boards of the ACLU and several academic freedom/free speech organizations.

(89 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen serves on the advisory boards of the ACLU and several academic freedom/free speech organizations.

She is the Host and Project Consultant for Free To Speak, a 3-hour documentary film series distributed on public television in 2023.

(114 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen serves on the advisory boards of the ACLU and several academic freedom/free speech organizations.

She is the Host and Project Consultant for Free To Speak, a 3-hour documentary film series distributed on public television in 2023.

Her most recent book is: The War On Words: 10 Arguments Against Free Speech—And Why They Fail (coauthored with FIRE President Greg Lukianoff) (2025).

(129 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen serves on the advisory boards of the ACLU and several academic freedom/free speech organizations.

She is the Host and Project Consultant for Free To Speak, a 3-hour documentary film series distributed on public television in 2023.

Her most recent book is: The War On Words: 10 Arguments Against Free Speech—And Why They Fail (coauthored with FIRE President Greg Lukianoff) (2025).

In 2023, Strossen received the National Coalition Against Censorship's Lifetime Achievement Award for Free Speech.

(150 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen serves on the advisory boards of the ACLU and several academic freedom/free speech organizations.

She is the Host and Project Consultant for Free To Speak, a 3-hour documentary film series distributed on public television in 2023.

Her most recent books are: The War On Words: 10 Arguments Against Free Speech—And Why They Fail (coauthored with FIRE President Greg Lukianoff) (2025); Free Speech: What Everyone Needs to Know® (2023); and HATE: Why We Should Resist It with Free Speech, Not Censorship (2018).

In 2023, Strossen received the National Coalition Against Censorship's Lifetime Achievement Award for Free Speech.

(197 words)

Nadine Strossen, New York Law School Professor Emerita and Senior Fellow at FIRE (the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression), was national President of the American Civil Liberties Union from 1991 to 2008. An internationally acclaimed free speech scholar and advocate, who regularly addresses diverse audiences and provides media commentary around the world, Strossen is the Host and Project Consultant for Free To Speak, a 3-hour documentary film series distributed on public television in 2023.

Her most recent books are: The War On Words: 10 Arguments Against Free Speech—And Why They Fail (coauthored with FIRE President Greg Lukianoff); Free Speech: What Everyone Needs to Know® (2023); HATE: Why We Should Resist It with Free Speech, Not Censorship (2018); and Defending Pornography: Free Speech, Sex, and the Fight for Women's Rights (1995), which was republished with a new Preface in 2024 as part of the NYU Classics Series.

In 2023, Strossen received the National Coalition Against Censorship's Lifetime Achievement Award for Free Speech.

She serves on the Advisory Boards of several free speech/academic freedom organizations, including: ACLU, Academic Freedom Alliance, Foundation Against Intolerance and Racism (FAIR), Heterodox Academy, National Coalition Against Censorship, and Voices for Liberty Initiative.