

Culture: What Is It? How Does It Influence Negotiation and Mediation?

DATE*Wednesday September 27, 2023*TIME*5:30 p.m.–6:45 p.m. EDT*PLACE*In-person or online stream

Events Center, Second Floor
New York Law School
185 West Broadway, New York, NY 10013

COST*Free of charge*RSVP*www.nyls.edu/ADRrsvp1*CLE

1.5 credits in Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias (NY transitional and nontransitional)

CLE Financial Aid Policy:
www.nyls.edu/cletuitionassistance

Culture is an aspect of the dispute resolution process that is gradually receiving more attention. But what exactly does culture mean in this context? Is cross-cultural dispute resolution a subject of interest only in the international setting, or is it also seen in the domestic context? Professor Ilhyung Lee of the University of Missouri will address these questions and encourage a more deliberate consideration of the culture component.

Ilhyung Lee

Director, Center for the Study of Dispute Resolution and Edward W. Hinton Professor of Law

