

Federal Bar Association
Immigration Law Section

NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL

Wilf Impact Center for Public Interest Law

10TH ANNUAL ASYLUM AND IMMIGRATION LAW CONFERENCE

Thursday, February 6, 2025 and Friday, February 7, 2025

Location: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6

New York Law School
185 West Broadway
New York, NY 10013

Afternoon Panels: 1:00 p.m.–5:30 p.m.

Evening Reception: 5:45 p.m.–7:00 p.m.

Book Discussion With Jonathan Blitzer, New Yorker writer and author of Everyone Who is Gone is Here: 7:00 p.m.–8:30 p.m.

CLE:

5.5 Professional Practice,
1 Skills credit
(NY transitional and nontransitional)

Please note that there will be no CLE sessions on this date. There is no cost to attend the afternoon panels, but a ticket is still required. There is a charge to attend the evening reception and book discussion—see details in the event registration. For students, there is no cost to attend the book discussion, but registration is required. Light refreshments and wine will be served at the reception.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7

CLE Panels: 9:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.

There will be two tracks of CLE panels, fundamentals and advanced, featuring over 40 expert speakers. Registration costs for all other attendees are listed by role and status (scholarships available). Lunch and an afternoon tea break are included for in-person attendees (vegetarian offerings available).

RSVP at www.nyls.edu/ImpactEvent

There are two categories of tickets: one for in-person attendance and one for virtual attendance for each day, totaling 14 ticket options.

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

Since 1891