

PROGRESS REPORT:

Education Justice 50 Years After Goss v. Lopez

To commemorate 50 years since the U.S. Supreme Court's landmark decision on students' disciplinary due process rights, join civil rights attorneys, education law experts, the Solutions Not Suspensions coalition, and New York State Attorney General and legislative representatives for a symposium reflecting upon the impact of Goss v. Lopez on students' access to education and the future of students' educational rights under United States and New York law.

WHEN:

Friday, March 28, 2025 • 9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

WHERE:

New York Law School Auditorium

185 West Broadway, New York, NY 10013

CLE:

2.5 credits in Professional Practice (NY transitional and nontransitional), 2.5 credits in Diversity, Inclusion, Elimination of Bias (nontransitional only)

RSVP

www.nyls.edu/impactRSVP

This event is co-sponsored by Advocates for Children of New York; The Legal Aid Society; Legal Services NYC; and New York Law School's Wilf Impact Center for Public Interest Law, Education Law and Policy Institute, Diane Abbey Law Institute for Children and Families, Civil Rights and Disability Justice Clinic, and Center for New York City and State Law.

