

WILF IMPACT CENTER CONVERSATIONS

Wednesday, April 16

COMMUNITY DEFENSE

12:50 p.m.–1:50 p.m. • W420

Join NYLS student leaders and professors for a presentation on constitutional protections for vulnerable populations and a discussion of recent enforcement actions.

Hosted by the Wilf Impact Center and NYLS student organizations: Immigration Law Students Association, National Lawyers Guild, Black Law Students Association, Middle Eastern/North African Association, Latin American Law Students Association, and Muslim Law Students Association.

Thursday, April 17

ORGANIZING IN LEGAL SPACES

12:50 p.m. –1:50 p.m. • W420

What's a wall-to-wall union? What does it mean to work as a unionized attorney? What's a collective bargaining agreement and how does it impact the ability to zealously advocate for clients? What are unionized legal offices?

Join the Wilf Impact Center in conversation with long-time labor advocates and organizers. There will be a discussion of each of these questions, the current labor landscape at legal service organizations, recent union actions, and more.

RSVP at www.nyls.edu/ImpactConversations

All community members are welcome to attend.
