

THE EDELMAN–TOWNLEY LECTURE:

Workplace Dispute Resolution at New York City's Public Transit System

DATE

Wednesday, September 10, 2025

TIME

5:30 p.m.–6:45 p.m. ET

PLACE

Virtual

COST

Free of charge

RSVP

www.nyls.edu/ADRsvp1

Information on how to access the livestream will be provided following registration.

CLE

1.5 credits in Professional Practice
(NY transitional and nontransitional)

Baimusa Kamara, Deputy Chief of Grievance Arbitrations and Labor Litigation at the New York City Metropolitan Transit Authority (MTA), and Rasheeda Baksh, Senior Director, Administrative Trials and Hearings/Employee Availability and Labor Cost Control, will discuss negotiations and dispute resolution processes at the MTA and share their experiences and perspectives.

This event is presented by the New York Law School's Alternative Dispute Resolution Skills Program and the Center for New York City and State Law.

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

Since 1891