

COMMUNITY DAYS

Community Days: Law in Context workshops provide students with an opportunity to examine American law and legal institutions in the context of the role of race in our history, politics, and culture.

Law in Context

Criminal Law and Race

Monday, November 10, 2025

12:50 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

W400

RSVP at www.nyls.edu/workshopRSVP

Join Professors Kirk D. Burkhalter '04, Claudine Caracciolo, Justin Murray, and Lynn Boepple Su for a conversation about criminal law and race in the context of policies of the past and contemporary legal issues.

This event is co-sponsored by the Criminal Justice Institute and the student organization Criminal Law Society.

