Redistricting changes can shift power, affect communities, and influence whose voices are heard. Join us for this virtual event to learn more about “Mid-Decade Redistricting,” why it happens, how it can reshape political representation, and how the fast-moving process affects everyone.

MODERATOR:

The Honorable J. Michelle Childs is a United States Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

SPEAKERS:

Jonathan Cervas is an Assistant Teaching Professor at Carnegie Mellon University, specializing in redistricting, voting rights, and American political institutions.

Kareem Crayton is the Vice President of the Brennan Center’s Washington, D.C. office. During the 2020 redistricting cycle, he advised nearly a dozen local jurisdictions, commissions, and legislative caucuses.

Jeffrey M. Wice is a Distinguished Adjunct Professor of Law at New York Law School as well as Senior Fellow and Director of NYLS’s New York Elections, Census, and Redistricting Institution.
