If you have an interest in intellectual property (IP) law, feel free to attend this wide-ranging conversation between Rory Radding and Professor Seve Falati '08 on the various facets of practicing IP law.

Rory Radding

Seve Falati '08

Rory Radding, a Partner at Maschoff & Brennan IP Law Firm, has spent decades practicing IP law at well-known law firms in New York City. He is an IP strategist and an accomplished first-chair IP trial lawyer with extensive experience representing clients before several federal courts, the U.S. Supreme Court, and the U.S. International Trade Commission. He has litigated IP cases involving dozens of technologies and products for domestic and international clients.

Moderator: Professor Seve Falati '08, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Law; Co-Director, NYLS Innovation Center for Law and Technology; and Director, NYLS Patent Law Clinic
