

Women, Leadership, and Practice: Attracting, Retaining, and Advancing Talent

INSIGHTS FROM NAWL'S PULSE REPORT

RSVP at www.nyls.edu/eventRSVP1

SPEAKERS

Sandra Yamate, CEO, Institute for Inclusion in the Legal Profession; and President, National Association of Women Lawyers

Danielle Ash '13, Partner and Co-Chair, Ground Leases Practice and Impact Practice, Adler & Stachenfeld LLP

Leah Druckerman '13, Counsel, Venable LLP

Elizabeth Manno, Partner, IP Litigation Group, Holland & Hart; Board Member, National Association of Women Lawyers

Tanya Martinez-Gallinucci, Executive Director, Office of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging, New York City Bar Association

Elizabeth Osley '13, Legal Department Manager, ACLU-NJ

Salila Yohn, Executive Director, South Asian Bar Association of North America

Wednesday, October 14, 2026

12:50 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

Lunch will be served.

New York Law School
W300

185 West Broadway, New York, NY 10013

In 2025, the National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL) launched its first-ever Legal Profession Pulse Survey on career advancement, workplace culture, leadership, and the future of legal practice. The report provides valuable insights into the experiences of women lawyers while providing a broader set of perspectives to shape workplace policies in the profession going forward.

This event is co-sponsored by the NYLS student organizations, Employment and Labor Law Students Association, Legal Association of Women, and Womxn of Color Collective

This event is for the NYLS community only. Outside visitors will not be admitted.

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

Since 1891